Subject, Approval to the election of Mr P K Muthusami Khandar as Vice President of Hariyur Municipality

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the municipal council, at its meeting held on 30-9-1947 resolved to elect a vice President to the municipality The election of the vice President, was held by the President of the Municipality on 20-10-1947 in accordance with the calendar of events issued for the purpose

M/s (1) H Y Rudranna (2) P Mohamed sab (3) P K Muthusamy Khandar were the candidates Mr P Mohamed sab withdrew his candidature before the election as such the remaining two contested in the election Mr P K Muthusamy Khandar secured eight votes and Mr Rudranna six votes, as such, the former was declared to have been elected as Vice President of the Municipality at the meeting of the Municipal Council

3) M/s (1) H Y Rudranna (2) H Siddappa (3) A M Kallish (4) D P Cha sab (5) Kondasami Gowder (6) Balappa, municipal Councillors presented a petition to this office on 4-11-1947 and requested to set aside the election on the grounds specified in the petition The Sub Division Officer, Chitaldrug was appointed in this office memo No AG 670/47-48 dated 1-10-1947 to conduct the enquiry and to submit the report The Sub Division Officer, Chitaldrug, reported in his No 11/47-48 dated 20-2-1948 that Mr H Y Rudranna has withdrawn his objections and has recommended to approve the election The Sub Division Officer, Chitaldrug was instructed in this office memo No 670/47 dated 10-3-48 to enquire the other petitioners and to submit a report The Sub Division Officer, Chitaldrug in his No 11/47-48 dated 2-[illegible]-48 reported that none of the petitioners had turned up inspite of issue of notices on several occasions M/s Balappa and H Siddappa, the two petitioners, have deposed that they are unwilling to continue the case and that the other councillors (petitioner) M/s A M Kallish and D P Cha sab did not turn up

inspite of notices served on them he has further reported that these petitioners also are unwilling to continue the case and he requests that the election of Mr Muthusamy Khandar may be approved The amildar President, in his report o 4-11-1947 has submitted a detailed report in which it is seen that the election is regularly held and that the allegations are not tenable The Sub DivisionOfficer has also recommended approval to the election

In these circumstances, I request that early orders of Govt may kindly be obtained to reject the petition and to approve the election of Mr R. Muthusamy Khandar as vice President of the Hiriyur Municipal Council and to notify the same in the Mysore Gazette very early

All the connected papers are enclosed for favour of kind reference

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
